

NYC EPISTEMOLOGY/PSYCHOLOGY CONFERENCE

4-5 June 2016
Fordham University
School of Law
33 W 60th St
New York, NY 10023

We invite junior career researchers and advanced graduate students to submit their work for consideration in our upcoming interdisciplinary conference.

We are especially interested in papers that explore the relevance of psychological studies for epistemological questions and the prospects of successful inquiry.

Submissions should be fewer than 3000 words in length and prepared for anonymous review. Submissions must be received by: 15 March 2016. Decisions will be made by the first week of April.

Please direct inquiries or paper submissions to:
